

-14-

FEATURES FOR IMPROVED SLIDER ATTACHMENT

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A slider for supporting at least one transducer includes a slider body having a bearing surface and an opposing mounting surface. The slider also includes at least one adhesive control feature formed on the mounting surface to increase a surface area on which an adhesive is deposited.